Interview of the term: Mrs. La. Porta

Ellie Fletcher and Sophie Halsall interviewed our headteacher Ms La Porta. Here is what she told us.

“It is really interesting being headteacher at Middlewich Primary School. There is always so much happening. Recently I have enjoyed the coffee morning for Macmillan Cancer, the poem day, the school disco, art day and most of all the good manners shown by the children at our school. I would like to improve on the children being more thoughtful to each other and, if I had the opportunity, I would make the small hall bigger and add a conservatory .We have started to achieve this year’s school goal a lot faster than we normally do, which I am very impressed by. I love seeing children and teachers enjoying themselves, focusing well throughout all lessons. I also like seeing teachers helping children with their education. I’ve been Headteacher for 9 years now and I’m very proud of this school.

Answers in the next newsletter.

Have you seen the horrible homework on our school website?

1. Hold a spider (younger readers)
2. Complete 30 seconds of keepyuppies
- 3 .Design and make a friendship bracelet
- 4 .Create and make a delicious pizza for your family's tea
5. Hold a spider for 30 seconds
- 6 .Go for 24 hours without technology
- 7 .Iron a shirt (year 5 and 6)

We think these are great ways to be brilliant outside of the classroom.

Or you could also try one of the seven by seven. One of our recommendations is

When Hitler Sole Pink Rabbit by Judith Kerr.

This is a good book for older readers, especially if you want to learn more about WW2.

Younger readers may like The Tiger Who Came to Tea by the same author.

If you have any recommendations please write to us the Year 6 Newsletter group, (give them to Mrs Davies or Mr Taziker) and we will include them in future issues.

Happy Reading!!
